Understand and discourage Islamophobia in our nation

Dear Friends, As Salaam Alaikum (Peace be unto you).

Islamophobia is a growing cancer in our nation today where people target Islam and Muslims. This week is witnessing the occurrence of 'Islamofascism Week' at some university campuses, a project sponsored by the right-winger David Horowitz. From Ann Coulter to Robert Spencer to ex-Senator Rick Santorum, purveyors of hate are promoting anti-Islamic and anti-Muslim attitudes under the guise of a war on terrorism.

CAIR-PA will hold a seminar on Islamophobia and the ill effects of this hate-mongering upon American Muslims, their families and institutions. The event will be held at the Hall of Flags, Houston Hall, University of Pennsylvania. Details are provided below:

Date: November 4, 2007

Time: 1:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Location: Hall of Flags, Houston Hall, 3417 Spruce Street, Philadelphia (map)

Please join us to understand this phenomenon and how to effectively counter this illness in our country. Encourage a colleague, friend or neighbor to attend and learn.

Thank you.
