Dear Mr. Torres:

I write to alert you to a possible violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA) in which you, along with the Connecticut Republican leadership, were apparently the target of a foreign influence operation. It is our assessment that the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) was operating as an unregistered foreign agent when they called on state Republican leaders to repudiate your recent statements regarding Islam which they termed “intolerant” and “Islamophobic” in a May 14, 2010 press release. In addition, CAIR attributed Monday's bomb attack on a Florida mosque to a "growing atmosphere of anti-Muslim sentiment" nationwide that results from “Islamophobic statements like those made by Torres.” We believe that this specific act to pressure a congressional candidate and party leaders meets the definition of a political influence operation under the terms of the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA).

FARA is a disclosure statute that requires entities acting in the United States as agents of foreign principals in a political capacity to make periodic public disclosure of their relationship.

Specifically, FARA § 611 (o) states that foreign agents who engage in any activity to “influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States” must register as a foreign agent and report such activity to the Department of Justice. At the CAIRObservatory.org website (<http://www.cairobservatory.org>), we provide documentation showing CAIR has met and coordinated with representatives of foreign principals on more than 30 occasions and engaged in over 60 political influence operations on their behalf. CAIR has failed to report these influence operations.

In addition, FARA § 612 (a) (5) requires that a foreign agent report “the nature and amount of contributions, income, money, or thing of value” that they receive from foreign principals. At the CAIRObservatory.org website we provide documentation showing that CAIR has received more than $6.6 million in cash and loans and more than $50 million in pledges from foreign principals based in Saudi Arabia, Iran, the United Arab Emirates and Kuwait. CAIR has failed to report these payments.

FARA § 618 (a) also states that any foreign agent who willfully violates any provision of the law may be “punished by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.” We encourage you to familiarize yourself with these and other aspects of the FARA code at the Department of Justice website (<http://www.justice.gov/criminal/fara/>).

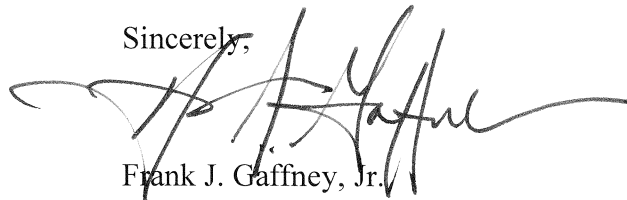

It is our opinion that the evidence showing that CAIR should register as a foreign agent is conclusive. Hundreds of Americans including elected officials, community groups, corporations and private citizens have been – and continue to be – targeted by CAIR. CAIR continues to deny these facts, but as John Adams famously wrote: “Facts are stubborn things; and whatever may be our wishes, our inclinations, or the dictates of our passion, they cannot alter the state of facts and evidence.”

The fact is that CAIR has a long history of trouble with the law. CAIR was named as an unindicted co-conspirator in U.S. v. Holy Land Foundation, the largest terrorism finance trial in America’s history. CAIR is being sued by Muslim, African-American and Hispanic families for defrauding them instead of giving them promised legal help. Four CAIR leaders have been convicted of felonies including terrorism. Only 1% of CAIR’s latest reported revenues actually came from Muslim-American membership dues. And according to the February 2, 2010 edition of the news website Politico.com, “A grand jury that subpoenaed documents relating to the Council on American-Islamic Relations is investigating possible violations of federal laws barring financial transactions with terrorist groups and countries subject to U.S. sanctions, according to a new court filing.”

We have concluded on the basis of the evidence that CAIR’s activities are designed to intimidate all Americans, including Muslim Americans, in ways that endanger the First Amendment and national security. We urge you to join us in opposing CAIR’s efforts to engage in political influence operations funded by foreign principals and enforced by CAIR and its Muslim Brotherhood partners whereby accusations of bias, racism and “Islamophobia” are employed to silence those opposed to the Brotherhood’s insinuation into the United States of the totalitarian theo-political-legal program that authoritative Islam calls “Shariah.”

The interests of the American people can be served only if CAIR follows the law, registers as a foreign agent with the FARA office, and reports all political and public propaganda initiatives. We ask you to request that the FARA Unit investigate CAIR’s attempted influence operation to censure you and intimidate the Connecticut Republican leadership. The FARA Registration Unit of the Counterespionage Section (CES) is located in the National Security Division (NSD) of the Department of Justice (1400 New York Avenue, N.W., Suite 100, Washington, D.C. 20005).

Sincerely,
