MUSLIMS ON THE RADIO

Insha Allah, the local affiliate of National Public Radio will conduct a one-hour program on Tuesday, May 15, 2001 at 11:00 a.m. discussing the role of Muslims in the St. Louis area.

The program will air on 90.7 FM (KWMU).

We ask that you please call in to the show at 382-TALK (382-8255) and let your voice be heard and let St. Louis know that we are here.

Sponsored by the
Council on American-Islamic Relations
St. Louis Chapter.

CAIR - St. Louis

Council on American-Islamic Relations
St. Louis Chapter

(ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI - 9/24/2001) - The St. Louis Chapter of the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR-STL) has been receiving reports of verbal and physical harassment against St. Louis area Muslims. It is vital that all anti-Muslim incidents be reported and documented to CAIR-STL, as well as local law enforcement officials. The following are examples of the types of incidents that need to be reported:

* Hate calls or death threats to Muslims, Islamic centers, businesses, or homes
* Verbal or physical harassment at school or at work
* Threats or verbal abuse by strangers in public places
* Refusal of service from a place of business
* Defacement, vandalism or damage of Mosques, Islamic centers or homes.

Please fill-out the incident form at the end of the alert and send it to CAIR-STL. All reports are confidential. Forms should be returned by mail or email, along with supporting documents such as police reports (if available) as follows: By Mail - CAIR-STL, c/o Hate Crimes Department, 7239 Dartmouth Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63130. By email: CAIR-STL at cairstl@hotmail.org.

If you believe you have been the victim of a hate crime, you should:

1. Report the crime to your local police station immediately. Ask to speak with the "Hate Crime Section." Ask that the incident be treated as a hate crime. Follow up with investigators. 2. Inform CAIR-STL even if you believe it is a "small" incident. Document the incident using the incident report at the end of the alert. Save evidence. Take photographs. 3. Act quickly. Each incident must be dealt with when it happens, not when convenient. 4. Decide on the appropriate action to be taken. Consider issuing a statement from community leaders, holding a news conference, organizing a protest, meeting with officials, or starting a letter writing campaign. 5. Mobilize community support. Contact CAIR-STL and a local mosque or organization. 6. Stay on top of the situation. 7. Announce results. When the incident is resolved, make an announcement to the same people and organizations originally contacted.

ST. LOUIS AREA MUSLIMS CELEBRATE END OF RAMADAN FAST WITH PRAYERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WHAT: On December 16, 2001* (date may vary, see below), the St. Louis Muslim community will celebrate the end of the month-long fast of Ramadan with communal prayers. Ramadan is the month on the Islamic lunar calendar during which Muslims abstain from food, drink and other sensual pleasures from break of dawn to sunset.

The prayers mark the beginning of the Eid ul-Fitr (eed-al-fitter), the first of the two major Muslim holidays. The second holiday comes at the end of the Hajj, or pilgrimage to Mecca. Demographers say Islam is one of the fastest growing religions in this country and around the world. There are an estimated six to seven million Muslims in the United States and some 1.2 billion worldwide.

WHEN & WHERE: December 16, 2001 (*A small chance exists that Eid will be on Saturday, December 15, 2001. Because Ramadan is a lunar month, the actual date is governed by the sighting of the new moon). Eid prayers will be held at the following locations:

Bosnian Cultural Center 4666 Landsdowne Ave. St. Louis, Missouri 63116 7:56 a.m.	St. Louis Community College at Meramec * PE Building (Gym) 11333 Big Bend Blvd. Kirkwood, Missouri 63122 8:30 a.m. (* If Eid falls on Saturday, prayer will be at Forest Park branch of Community College in PE Building)	Gateway Mosque - Islamic Center 3843 W. Pine St. Louis, Missouri 63108 9:00 a.m.

CONTACT: For more information on the Eid prayers, please call the Islamic Foundation of Greater St. Louis at 636-394-7878 or call Kamal Yassin at 477-8407.
